A dozen De La Salle Collegiate students attended the Giant Step Teen Conference at Greater Grace Conference Center in Detroit on Tuesday, October 29. The 12 were among students from several Detroit area Catholic high schools and urban public schools; DLS students traveled with a dozen students from Regina High School.

The students discussed diversity and such topics as families, religion, school, peers, goals, and interest, with the conference goal to learn and understand different points of view.

This entry was posted in General News by Vicki Granger. Bookmark the permalink.
Donate now, purchase Pilot apparel and event tickets at the DLS eStore.