A Report on Wonderful & Alarming Women: Charles Lang Freer and the Women who Helped Establish His Museum

On March 31st, 2022, the Freer House hosted Wonderful & Alarming Women: Charles Lang Freer and the Women who Helped Establish His Museum, a free Zoom lecture by guest speaker, Lillian Wilson, PhD, Humanities Career Diversity Fellow and Managing Director of the Humanities Clinic at Wayne State University, and Founder and Director of Detroit Historical Consulting.

Dr. Wilson's meticulously researched and engaging talk on four extraordinary friends of Charles L. Freer reached nearly 90 viewers from all over the country. Thank you to Dr. Wilson and William Colburn, Cheryl Deep, and Ryan Cunningham of the Freer House for making this event a great success! If you missed the live program, a link to the recording is available on the Freer House website.
