

Giant Step Teen Conference 2022 Inclusion, Harmony, Acceptance

200 teens from across metro Detroit learn how to like and respect each other as they discover all they have in common.

We need your help
Please consider sponsoring teens to attend our Oct. 25 conference at Wayne State University

Students enter as strangers and leave as friends

Giant Step is Michigan’s longest-running conference promoting acceptance and tolerance in teens. Hundreds of diverse teens from dozens of schools and agencies attend each year. Students talk, share and laugh in a day full of facilitated discussion and thought-provoking exercises.

Always free thanks to generous donors like you.

- 95% of students said the group leader guided us but let us express our own opinion.
- 92% said Giant Step was a positive experience and they want their school to attend again.
- 96% said talking with teens from different backgrounds was interesting and educational.
- 81% said they could talk about issues that were important to them.

Sponsors receive special recognition on-line, in print or at event.
